TALKS ON TUESDAY - TRUSTING RELATIONSHIPS

The topic of the March 13, 2018
Talks on Tuesday is Trusting Relationships.

Leah Davidson, MS, IMH-E (II) will present the webinar. Be on the lookout for an email from the Partnership for People with Disabilities with the Subject Line PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY.

The webinar will include a lively discussion on the role that relationships play in the development of young children, including a review of some basics about the importance of relationships and reflection on our own experiences in early intervention. It will tie the information directly to the information provided by Dr. Mona Delahooke during her recent online talk about neurodevelopmental approaches to intervention.

If you've ever said this to yourself or a colleague "I wish Dr. XXXX would not just state the diagnosis and then tell the family to call us - it makes the family feel so lost and sad!!!" then this is the webinar for you - let's empower each other to promote learning through relationships and shed light on the power of the ties that bind us.
