

Infant & Toddler Provider Training

Learn How to Reduce Challenging Behaviors

Center on the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL) Pyramid Model Module 3 Training (Individualized Intervention with Infants and Toddlers)

DID YOU KNOW?

Most challenging behaviors (think biting, hitting, acting out, withdrawing, trouble following the rules) can be addressed by using strategies taught in this training. For infant and toddler providers, it's important to be able to understand a child's behavior and to develop individual support plans.

TRAINING DETAILS

As a result of this training, you will learn tools and strategies to reduce challenging behavior in your work setting. This content builds on CSEFEL Module 1 & 2 training content. You must have attended a CSEFEL Module 1 & 2 Training event to attend this training.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR ME?

- 7 hours of training for $25 (training hours count towards licensing hours)
- Social and emotional development resources for your work setting worth up to $40
- Opportunity to sign up for one-on-one coaching to help you practice what you learn
