

A Special Invitation to Early Intervention Service Coordinators!

- ✓ Are you currently working as a service coordinator in a local early intervention system in Virginia?
- ✓ Are you interested in building your knowledge and skills in service coordination and implementing evidence-based practices as a service coordinator?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, this professional development opportunity will be of interest to you...

The Partnership for People with Disabilities at Virginia Commonwealth University, through a contract from the Infant & Toddler Connection of Virginia, is offering Kaleidoscope: New Perspectives in Service Coordination, Level I.

We are offering this highly interactive and informative training and have targeted the training to meet the needs of relatively new service coordinators although more experienced service coordinators may also find this training helpful, renewing and fun! The training sessions will be held on October 25 and 26, 2010 at:

FAIRFAX
Student Union Building II
George Mason University
10423 Rivanna River Way
Fairfax, VA 22030

We are not holding any overnight rooms. Individuals are responsible for booking and paying for their own sleeping rooms. Below are suggested hotels in the area.
